

November 2004
Manchester Beach KOA, California

Jim Laurence, owner, is deep frying turkeys for Thanksgiving Dinner.

During the day, there was a silent auction with all the funds going to KOA Kid Kamps.

Jillian really wanted the stuffed animal. She stood by the table most of the afternoon so she wouldn't be outbid.

Campers brought a dish to share and there was plenty of food.

November 2004
Manchester Beach KOA, California

Over 140 campers attended the Thanksgiving Dinner.

Santa arrived the night after Thanksgiving and stirred up the campground. Guess who played Santa?

After creating a commotion Santa stopped by the Rec Hall to talk to the children.

Jillian really liked Santa's visit.

November 2004
Manchester Beach KOA, California

Quite a few children sat on Santa's lap.

Of course there were some adults who also sat on Santa's knee.

There were a few teenagers. These are the children of Felipe and Tency, who also work in the campground.

Before the movie, Jillian put on a exhibition of martial arts.